

WORLD WAR I AND AMERICA

1917 ★ WWIAMERICA.ORG ★ 2017

World War I and America Traveling Exhibition and Programs at the Oelwein Public Library

April 1-24, 2017

Monday, April 3rd at 6:30 pm. Exhibit opening with refreshments made from recipes from this time period and provided by the Friends of the Library. Short video clips and readings will be shared. Dr. Meghan Mettler, Assistant Professor of History, Upper Iowa University, will lead a readers' discussion.

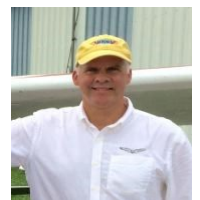

Thursday, April 6th at 6:30 pm. "U. S. Railroad Operations During World War I" Learn how the railroads were used in both civilian and military aspects during WWI in the U. S. and overseas. Program given by Dr. Rudy Daniels, Western Iowa Tech Community College

Tuesday, April 18th at 6:30 pm. Readers' discussion with Dr. Meghan Mettler, UIU. Short video clips and readings will be shared and discussed. Videos and readings can be found at www.wwiamerica.org. Reading material also available at the library.

Thursday, April 20th at 6:30 pm. "Camp Dodge: Home Away From Home, 1917-1918" Mike Vogt, Curator, Iowa Gold Star Military Museum, Johnston, Iowa, will present a 45 minute program on the organization, construction, disease, camp life, and other facets of military training at Camp Dodge during WW I. This presentation includes a slide show of period photographs from the Iowa Gold Star Military Museum collection.

Readings and videos can be previewed at www.wwiamerica.org

PRESENTED BY

THE GILDER LEHRMAN
INSTITUTE of AMERICAN HISTORY

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

THE NATIONAL WWI MUSEUM
AND MEMORIAL

WARRIORWriters

SUPPORTED BY

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities