MEETING ROOM POLICY

The purpose of the library's meeting room is to provide space for library programs and events and to fulfill the library's role as a community center where the public can attend informational, educational, and cultural events. The meeting room is available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.¹

Guidelines for Use:

- The meeting room is available to non-profit groups (defined as those entities granted tax-exempt status by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) or other tax exempt sections of the Internal Revenue Code) and local government.
- Use of the meeting room by individuals or groups does not constitute an endorsement by the Library of the content of the program or the views expressed by the participants.
- No fees will be charged for the use of the meeting room.
- Groups and individuals may not sell merchandise, do fundraising, solicit contacts for later sales or placement of orders, or charge admission fees or tuition. If groups offer materials in connection with study groups, conferences, and similar events, they may accept donations to cover the cost of materials. Exception: Events sponsored by Oelwein Public Library, the City of Oelwein, Friends of the Oelwein Public Library, or the Oelwein Public Library Foundation, and county, service area, and state library group meetings are exempt from the above restrictions.

Scheduling:

- Priorities:
 - Elections (Oelwein Public Library is a designated polling place.)
 - Library programs and activities
 - Library related groups' programs and activities
 - Local Government programs and activities
 - Non-Profit Groups

- The meeting room is available during library hours. Meetings will vacate the library premises 15 minutes prior to library closing time.
- Reservations must be made by an adult who will be held responsible for any damage incurred to the building or equipment and must be in charge of any children/minors under age 18 attending the meeting.
- Each group is limited to a total of 2 meetings per month, not to exceed 12 meetings per calendar year.
- Meetings may not be scheduled more than 6 months in advance.

Facilities:

- The meeting room is limited to the capacity of 60 seats. (maximum capacity of 84)
- Controlled substances, alcohol, and smoking are not permitted.
- Materials or equipment owned by any individual or group may not be left or stored at the library. The library will not be responsible for any material left in the library.
- No materials or property shall be moved in or attached that will damage floors, walls, or woodwork.
- Each group is responsible for setting up the room and returning it to its original arrangement. (See diagram on white board) Clean tables, countertops, sink, and floors as needed.
- Kitchen facilities may be used for refreshments. Cups, plates, napkins, utensils, coffee, coffee filters, and other articles must be supplied by groups using the meeting room.
- Exception: Events sponsored by Oelwein Public Library, the City of Oelwein, Friends of the Oelwein Public Library, or the Oelwein Public Library Foundation, and county, service area, and state library group meetings are exempt from the above restrictions.
- Exempt groups need to fill out application for reference purposes. No deposit required.

Staff Assistance:

- The staff is not available to deliver telephone messages, unless there is an emergency.
- Presenters using meeting room equipment are expected to have a basic knowledge of their use. Staff cannot provide in-depth training but will answer basic questions about the equipment.

Study Room:

- Limited to the capacity of 6 seats.
- Testing and studies will take precedence.
- Groups reserving the study room must follow the meeting room guidelines and scheduling requirements.

In certain circumstances, exceptions may be made at the discretion of the director.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to

- deny use of the facility to any individual or group for causing damages or for improper use of the facilities or for not adhering to library policies and meeting room terms of use.
- levy a fee or require a deposit.
