New Online Book Club!

Great news for you Book Club fans! If you like to read books and talk about them with others, in a safe way, this is for you! The Oelwein Public Library started an Online Book Club via GoToMeeting. If interested, please contact Deann at dfox@oelwein.lib.ia.us with your email address or watch our Facebook page for the link to the meeting. Books chosen will be available online with Bridges and Hoopla or by checkout at the library. November's selection will be Little Fires Everywhere by Celeste Ng. Discussion will be Wednesday, December 2nd at 10 am..

With the holiday season fast approaching, we need to be very mindful of scammers. The Federal Trade Commission has launched a new website that makes it easy to report fraud, scams, and bad business practices at ReportFraud.ftc.gov. You can find this link on our webpage on the eGov't page located under the Online Resources tab.

Donor's Corner

The following people made donations in memory of loved ones during the month of October:

In memory of Seth Garceau

Jens & Joanne Nielsen

In memory of Leo Hanson

Ken & Barb Roberson

For more information on how you can create this lasting tribute to someone you have lost or would like to honor, please contact Deann Fox at 283-1515.

We will be implementing our temporary hours and restrictions for November.

Hours: Temporary hours will be Monday-Friday 9:30 am. - 6:00 pm. and on Saturday 10:00 am. - 2 pm.

Going In: Library services will be along the lines of a "Get 'n Go" service. No seating in the library at this time.

Internet: Limited computers will be available for once-per-day use for 45 minutes. The Wi-Fi will be available during open hours.

Meet Elsewhere: The meeting room and study room are not available at this time.

Services On Hold: Services that would require a lot of interaction or touching of surfaces will be temporarily suspended, such as, passport services and faxing or scanning of documents.

Curbside pickup will still be available or those who would rather not go inside the building.

KID ZONE

November 2020

Virtual Film Screening & Live Chat Opportunity with Real Engineers

All around the world, engineers are pushing the limits of ingenuity and innovation in unexpected, imaginative, and amazing ways. Dream Big: Engineering Our World takes viewers on a journey of discovery from the world's tallest building to a bridge higher than the clouds. Audiences will witness how today's engineers are shaping the world of tomorrow.

This inspirational program will offer people a free film screening of the award-winning documentary Dream Big: Engineering Our World on November 10, 14, 17, and 24. In addition to the film, ASCE is organizing panels where patrons can join live conversations with our Dream Teams of young, diverse engineers.

Watch our Facebook page for film viewing and chat links!

Dream Big: Engineering Our World, produced by MacGillivray Freeman Films in partnership with ASCE. The ASCE Foundation is supporting the free screenings. Dream Big is a great way to introduce kids to engineering. The American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) is partnering with the STAR Library Network (STAR Net) and its Project BUILD engineering program. Project BUILD is supported by the National Science Foundation.
