The Library Noise

Online Book Club!

If you like to read books and talk about them with others, in a safe way, this is for you! The Oelwein Public Library started an Online Book Club via GoToMeeting. If interested, please contact Deann at dfox@oelwein.lib.ia.us with your email address or watch our Facebook page for the link to the meeting. Books chosen will be available online with Bridges and Hoopla or by checkout at the library. April's book will be The Last Romantics by Tara Conklin. Discussion will be Wednesday, April 28th, at 10 am.

National Library Week April 4-10 2021

There's no better time than National Library Week to visit your library virtually at www.oelwein.lib.ia.us or in person! Discover and explore new worlds through access to your library's technology, multimedia content and educational programs.

National Library Week is an annual celebration highlighting the valuable role libraries, librarians, and library workers play in transforming lives and strengthening our communities. First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association and libraries of all types across the country each April.

Stop in and pick up a button to show your support of your library.
Thank you!
