"Libraries store the energy that fuels the imagination. They open up windows to the world and inspire us to explore and achieve, and contribute to improving our quality of life. Libraries change lives for the better." ~ Sidney Sheldon

English Paper Piecing March 15th at 2:00 p.m.

Cathy McFarland will give a brief history of English Paper Piecing and then lead the class in making their own Spring Flower Trivet. Registration is required. $10.00 material cost to be paid upon registration. English Paper Piecing is a hand sewing technique used in quilting, which uses card stock to keep the fabric in the correct shape.

To request an accommodation call 319-283-1515 or email oelwein@oelwein.lib.ia.us

Did You Know?

The library has a wide variety of cake pans for you to checkout. Need to make a cake for a special occasion? Come and look through the pans we have available.

They can be checked out for two weeks and come with instructions. We have cake decorating books available in the 641.8 section of the Non-Fiction stacks.
