Iowa Climber: Jen Loeb

Climbing Mt. Everest Program

April 10th at 6:00 p.m.

Iowan Jen Loeb completed her dream of climbing the "7 summits" in 2021. She is the first and only woman from Iowa to climb the highest peak on every continent.

Join us in welcoming Jen to the library. She will walk participants through the process of climbing the tallest mountain in the world, what it looks like and how it felt. Learn about the tools she uses and their functions. Jen will show photos and a video of her climbing through the icefall section of Mount Everest. This program is sponsored by the Oelwein Public Library Foundation.
