The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has provided us with some informational hand-outs on scam awareness, how to spot a scam, play it safe online, where to report a scam and more. These helpful hand-outs are located next to the circulation desk. You can find more information at <https://www.consumerfinance.gov/>

With your library card, you have access to FREE online resources for the whole family. Visit our website at www.oelwein.lib.ia.us and click on the Online Resources tab to open the door to online tutoring for homework, practice tests, online job coaching and resume help. For downloadable books, audiobooks, magazines, movies, music, and more click on the eBooks & Audiobooks tab.

Need help? A librarian would be happy to help you. Stop in or call 319-283-1515.

Did You Know?

The library has a NEW book section? We now offer dyslexia-friendly books for young readers! These books feature dyslexia-friendly fonts and formats, short chapters, and/or characters with dyslexia. Although it's a small section at the moment, we have plans to help it grow. You can find these books in the back of the Children's section.

The library truly does have something for everyone!

Donor's Corner

The following people made donations in memory of loved ones during the month of July:

- In memory of Seth Garceau
Jens & Joanne Nielsen
- In memory of Marian Link
Ken & Sandy Magsamen

For more information on how you can create this lasting tribute to someone you have lost or would like to honor, please contact Deann Fox at 283-1515.
