

Library Report to the City Council

September 2018

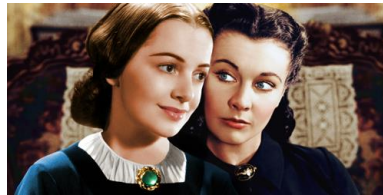

Text a Librarian

The library has added a new feature for communicating with the library. Library patrons can text message questions to librarians using the number 319-284-8288. In addition, patrons will receive automatic reminders to their cell phones for renewals or they can check the status of their account.

Stained Glass Art

Laurie Uhlenhake- Thompson will be giving a presentation on her artful stained glass creations. Laurie will make beautiful pieces using fused glass, antique glass plates, and agate stone slices. Laurie will display many of the art works that use these unique pieces and demonstrate the process used in making glass art. Come view Laurie's work on Wednesday, September 12 at 6:30 p.m.

Good Women & Bad Girls

The Friends of the Library will be hosting their annual Appreciation Tea on Thursday, September 20th at 1:30 p.m. Historian Kathy Wilson will give an entertaining program on understanding Victorian attitudes about women, home, and health. Enjoy delicious refreshments that go along with the theme!

On September 18 at 1:30, Friends will hold their Annual Meeting. They will conduct their business meeting and elect officers and board members for the upcoming year.

Deann Fox has been working at the library as a Page for the last couple of months. Deann has been promoted to Assistant Librarian replacing Lisa who has accepted a position with another institution. As we welcome Deann, we also wish the best to Lisa! A new Library Page will be joining our team, soon.
